SERIAL No. –

Asstt Secretary's query dated 1st February 1898

There is no provision made in the Govt (Todd) notification. Free tax rules are all taken from the Madras abkari manual which ~~is now~~ the introduction of which is under consideration of Govt (Legislative branch).

Before the issue of todd Rules (Copy put up) in June 1898, Govt had approved of the a certain Circular ~~issued~~ proposed by the Excise Commr which contained the provision in question (Vide para 16 of Excise Commr's circular No. 111-18 of 5th July 1897)

KJ

The fees in question were not tapped owing to "unavoidable accident" & hence the claim to refund. The ~~pattern~~ circular under wh the refund is to be made has been approved by Govt in its proc of 20/7/97

Put up file with draft.
